

Something in the way

(NIRVANA)

The image shows a handwritten musical score for the song "Something in the way" by Nirvana. The score is written on four staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. It features a series of eighth notes with 'x' marks above them, indicating palm mutes. Above the staff, there are handwritten notes: "8" with a circled '8', "Crank" with an arrow pointing to the notes, and "Ride" with an arrow pointing to the notes. A bracket labeled "1-2" spans the first two measures. The second staff starts with a treble clef and a 3/4 time signature, followed by a 2/4 time signature and a 4/4 time signature. It contains a few notes and rests. The third staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature, continuing the eighth-note pattern with 'x' marks. Above the staff, there is a circled "1-". The fourth staff starts with a treble clef and a 2/4 time signature, followed by a few notes and rests. Below the fourth staff, there are three empty staves.
